

LAST WEEK THIS WEEK

The highs and lows of a life in the side-stream

Issue No. 9 June 8 - June 14, 2025

GO GIRL IS LIVE

Every morning I wake up, have my coffee and write FOR MY PODCAST. This is a dreamy morning routine. I will say making the first recording was some kind of exercise in managing self talk. Does anyone like the way they sound? At one point in the process, after listening to the bit where HRH interrupts me, I was like, "wow. I am an odd little human." I am thankful you are here in spite of that. Because of that?

Head over to my website to find links to listen! Episode 2 drops on Sunday!

THIS WEEK NEXT WEEK

Folks this week I got paid for my first digital freelance placement. $0.01 USD. Good thing the exchange rate is working in my favour.

Adventure training HRH has begun in earnest.

As you can see my darts game was spot on for the tournament final. I hit the board most of the time. Big improvement over the season.

#TakingJobsFromTheBots

I confess I used Adobe's AI tool to get my podcast image. But then I fixed it. Is that less evil? Weigh in this week with emojis:

[devil] = %100 you burn
[angel] = Thou hast redeemed thy sin..
[shrug] = meh.
